ABOUT ME

I am writing to apply for a long-term study visa (Type D) at the Embassy of Italy in New Delhi as I have received my acceptance letter for the Bachelor's degree in Earth Sciences for Sustainable Development at University of Trieste. I have recently completed my higher secondary education with a strong academic background in physics, chemistry, and environmental studies, along with practical exposure to environmental awareness activities, as shown in my CV. Through my studies and experience, I have developed a strong interest in sustainability, natural resources, and environmental protection. This program will help me build strong knowledge and practical skills in Earth sciences and sustainable development.
